MEMORANDUM FOR DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS, (MARINE CORPS)

SUBJECT: Memorandum of Appreciation, Joint Civilian Orientation
Conference (JCOC 59)

Please convey my sincere appreciation to Major Scott Campbell for his outstanding support in the planning and execution of JCOC 59, which took place April 22 - 29, 1996. As the Marine Corps Project Officer, (b)(6) attention to detail, coupled with his can-do attitude, contributed significantly to the overall success of JCOC 59.

I am pleased to forward a Certificate of Appreciation from the Secretary of Defense recognizing (b)(6) efforts. He was a valuable addition to my JCOC team. I look forward to his arrival here in OSD PA. He is a credit to the Marine Corps.

Certificate of Appreciation

to (b)(6)

United States Marine Corps

For

exceptional service provided in support of the Joint Civilian Orientation Conference (JCOC 59). (b)(6) brought his considerable humor, insight and wit to the duties of Marine Corps Project Officer for the JCOC. By his tireless devotion to duty, unusually effective powers of persuasion, and thorough expertise in the community relations arena, (b)(6) provided outstanding support to the mission, and ensured the successful accomplishment of the Joint Civilian Orientation Conference. (b)(6) outstanding performance reflects great credit upon himself and the United States Marine Corps.

William J. Perry

Secretary of Defense
